Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Section 1064 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988 authorizes the Secretary to pay an insurance claim that “bridges the gap” between the fair market value proceeds from the HUD-approved third party sale of a property. The respondents are lenders, counselors, and homeowners who are attempting to sell their properties prior to foreclosure. The Privacy Act of 1974 pledges assurances of confidentiality to respondents. HUD will not disclose this information except where permitted or required by law.

Homeowners who have defaulted on their mortgages often attempt to sell their properties in order to avoid foreclosure and to protect their credit standing. However, because of declining property values in certain areas, some homeowners cannot realize enough from the sale to pay off their mortgage balances.

Therefore, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has implemented the Pre-foreclosure Sale (PFS) Program. This program permits homeowners to attempt to sell their home for a fair market sale price, which can be less than the amount owed to the lender. HUD then reimburses the lender for the difference between the sale proceeds and the outstanding mortgage indebtedness.

Homeowners who sell their properties under the PFS Program may also benefit by avoiding the effect of a foreclosure on their credit rating.

Upon review of the homeowner's financial situation, the lender will determine the type of PFS process for which the homeowner qualifies: (1) Standard PFS, (2) Streamlined PFS, or (3) Streamlined PFS for Servicemembers with Permanent Change of Station Orders.

Once the type of PFS has been determined, there are certain criteria which must be met before the homeowner may be permitted to pursue a PFS.

Homeowners must engage the services of a real estate broker/agent. The real estate broker/agent selected must have no conflict of interest with the homeowner, lender, appraiser, or buyer associated with the PFS transaction. The transaction must be between two unrelated parties and be characterized by a selling price and other conditions that would prevail in a typical real estate sales transaction. If the homeowner secures a sales contract prior to receiving the Approval to Participate, the homeowner may submit the contract to the lender for consideration of PFS Program approval.

Owner-occupant homeowners who are not required to make minimum cash reserve contributions and successfully sell their properties using this program are relieved of their mortgage obligation and may be entitled to a cash incentive up to $3,000. The homeowner may apply a portion or the entire amount of the $3,000 consideration to resolve junior liens and to offset the sales transaction costs not paid by HUD (including a home warranty plan fee, costs of optional repairs, and buyer's closing expenses). Eligible homeowners are permitted at closing to receive the remaining amount from the aforementioned $3,000 consideration. This remaining amount may only be used for transition or relocation assistance.

If, after a good faith effort, an acceptable purchase offer is not obtained within the allotted time, the lender may accept a Deed-in-Lieu (DIL) of Foreclosure from the homeowner. While a DIL is less desirable than a PFS on a homeowner's credit record, it is still looked upon more favorably by creditors than a foreclosure.

By calling this number, _____, the homeowner will receive further details from their lender about the procedure and whether they may qualify. Please NOTE that the homeowner is under no obligation to make this call.
